

Spotlight on a Veteran

“Lucy”

AM/CAN CH. RAYPAT’S QUEEN OF HEARTS

Born July 24, 1999

Sire: Ch. Syrrrun’s Line of Credit, SOM

Dam: Raypat’s Highland Lizzy

Lucy was from a litter of seven by C-Section. She gave us trouble from that moment on as she was the last born, and was very hard to get to breathe on her own. If it were not for Lisa Holden, she may not be here today. She was the last puppy to be sold, since we could not find a show home for her. It was a time of sadness for our family, as my father was critically ill and I had no interest in keeping a puppy. Actually, my father’s last conversation with me was “I hope you get a good one out of the litter”. Well as it turned out, Lucy stayed at Raypat’s and she was a “Good One”.

Lucy could have finished from the 6 to 9 Class had she not been so contrary. She lost more shows with her crazy antics. Judges have actually said to the handlers” Can’t you control that bitch”. Lucy was a real hoot.

Thanks to the great handlers, Chris Baum, Lisa Holden and Shirley Bell. Lisa is Lucy’s very BFF. I think she would stay with Lisa if I allowed her. She runs in her motor home every chance she gets.

The highlights of Lucy's show career follows:

Tar Heel Boxer Club March 2000
Grand Sweeps Ann Gilbert

American Boxer Club May 2000
Grand Futurity Christine Baum

Woodstock Circuit-Canada July 2000
Canadian Champion Shirley Bell - 6 shows

Finished American Championship August 2000

– 13 months of age – with Lisa Holden as handler

American Boxer Club, Inc May 2002
Top Twenty Contender

Boxer Club of Western New York Nov. 2006
Best of Breed from Veteran Class and Best Veteran Sweeps
Winner

American Boxer Club, Inc. May 2009
Best Veteran Bitch and Third Award of Excellence at 9 + Years of age.

Allegheny Boxer Club, Inc. May 2011
Best Veteran Bitch – 11 + years old **

Ann Gilbert has the privilege of saying that she found Lucy first. (Grand Sweeps-Tar Heel Boxer Club 2000). She also found her last (maybe) as Best Veteran Bitch (Allegheny Boxer Club, Inc. 2011) Who knows at 12 ½ years old, what is next.
